

Become an EVC Patron!

By popular demand (one reader, anyway) I've added a widget on the right side of the website to make it simple to subscribe as an EVC patron. This doesn't entitle you to any additional perks, but it does allow you to donate to EVC on a monthly or annual basis in a "set it and forget it" sort of way. Thanks in advance for any donations received. Building and maintaining EVC has cost me a little money and it's nice to recuperate some of that. Be sure to also subscribe to the daily digest on the right side of the website to receive all EVC content in your email inbox.
