Cannabis to the Rescue

If everyone approached everyone else on a basis of mutual consent, then we wouldn't have laws that would have kept this person a lifetime patient of the medical-industrial complex. Down with drug laws. They are a violation of our rights, and often times sentence people to a lifetime of misery. Spread this story far and wide.