

For Me, For Thee

If you try to arrange things such that the political parasites can't stick their noses into your business, they call it "money laundering." Even if you're not doing anything immoral or illegal, they will still demand the ability to track and snoop on whatever you do, while saying it's to fight "money laundering" and terrorism.

Meanwhile, the Pentagon "lost" trillions of dollars. Your dollars. They stole it from you, then made it disappear, and say they "lost" it. You don't ever get to know where it went. But I'm sure the CIA and other warmonger agencies would never do anything nasty or criminal with it, right?

Just one more reason why anyone who calls this a "free country" is an idiot.
