

Humanity Win

According to Russia Today, instead of slaughtering hundreds of innocent people, Ukrainian soldiers surrendered when they realized who they were confronting were their brothers and sisters, not the enemy. This is a win for humanity, for civil disobedience, for anti-just-following-orders, and for individualism. Bravo Ukrainian soldiers. May your example reach soldiers and people everywhere.

Skyler.