

Jermaine Gets Mistrial in Calgary – All Charges Stayed

This was previously reported on the No State Project, I was finally able to post the documentary proof. Congrats to Jermaine and thanks for letting me post the document.

At no time was the prosecution able to provide the evidence to prove their claims were true. While the judge did order them to provide the evidence, they did not follow through and allowed the misconduct. Thankfully Jermaine still got a mistrial and the charges, though stayed, have not been refiled.

Considering the fact the witnesses were proven to be liars, I can see why the prosecution has chosen not to refile. Maybe the judge would sanction them if they did, something they should have done instead of forcing Jermaine to participate in the mistrial.

[embedded content]