

Loud, Insecure Idiots

Don't let the noise scare you or discourage you. Whether by intentional sabotage, "government"-created or otherwise, there has been, and will always be, some people trying to muddy, confuse, demonize and destroy the actual message of self-ownership and freedom. They are just noise. Ideas are bullet-proof. Don't let fear-driven closet statist and Trump apologists make you think that voluntarism is waning. It's not. At all. Don't let a few loud, insecure idiots trick you into thinking they represent any significant numbers. Stick to principles, ignore people who don't, and keep on keeping on. That's all.
