

Re: They Win, We Lose

Writes Free Your Kids:

No matter who wins, the people will lose. Our natural-born rights will continue to be denied, the Fed will continue to inflate the currency, taxation will continue to crush us, the police state will continue growing, and the slaughter of men, women, and children abroad will continue. The politicians win. The war-profiteers win. The banksters win. The elites win. The ruling classes win. We lose. End of story.
