Who’s Calling Whom “Arrogant”?

Time after time I’ve seen people call libertarians “arrogant”. Sure, I would agree with that in many cases. So?

Time after time, though, the haughtiest, most arrogant, and “better-than-you” folk I encounter are statists of one sort or another. Often the very same ones who get off calling libertarians “arrogant”.

The blind hypocrisy is actually kind of funny.
