

Words Poorly Used #94 — Excuses

Why is it that when there is a cop-involved killing that 1000 experts and eyewitnesses, mostly incognito, are everywhere. Cop apologists have a kit bag full of one size fits all excuses. The victim is posited to bear the blame for any injudicious critical thinking. Make all the excuses, use all the hindsight — this is still unacceptable. Someone died, and at the very least, guilty or not, was denied due process.
