

Acrostic on Bastiat

Nobody asked but ...

Freedom is a most misused and misunderstood word.
Rationality is often used to arrive at the irrational.
Everyone suppresses the factual to arrive at the fictional
Dealing infinite stories from infinitely minted alternatives
Erroneously lying from a right of free speech,
Relentlessly
Ignoring natural law
Cancelling reality.

Is it vain to ask our own senses
A simple question
To limit our reality to what we know?
