

Attention Citizens!

Remember and rely on your programming.

Your job is to take all new information and integrate it into the Dominant Narrative immediately and without question or delay. The Narrative must be preserved and protected at all costs.

You must subjugate your sanity, critical thinking, curiosity, discomfort, prosperity, individuality, and ability to navigate the world and avoid pain to the Dominant Narrative. It subsumes all.

You will be informed when the Narrative changes and you must then reject your old Narrative justifications and replace them with new ones without question or delay.
