

Libertarian Homeschool Curriculum?

Something I want to like, but can't: a Ron Paul designed homeschooling curriculum. Why can't I? Because curriculum = force, and I oppose compulsory education, even when it's on topics I agree with, like liberty and Austrian School economics. Compulsory education, ie. indoctrination, is wrong. Plain and simple. It's sort of an oxymoron, really. Libertarian (liberty, freedom, non-compulsion) curriculum (non-liberty, non-freedom, compulsion). You see? Ugh.

Skyler.
