

On Radical Woke Feminism

Alright I'm calling it: Dworkian feminism will marry racial wokeness and conclude that I am a racist rapist because my wife has more melanin in her skin than me. Andrea Dworkin says that in a patriarchal society such as the one we are in, all heterosexual sex is coercive and degrading to women. Since my wife is an hispanic woman from Mexico City, and I am an anglo-saxon man from Utah, our intercourse is an act of rape. Since my wife is darker skinned and I've chosen to rape her (over and over.. and over!) our intercourse is also evidence of racism. Ergo, it's my turn to be cancelled, arrested... and divorced? Oh well, sucks for me. And that's today's two cents.
