

Physical Proof en Route

The publication of Everything Voluntary - From Politics to Parenting is coming along. I've already proofed it digitally, and the recommended-for-first-timers physical proof copy is en route. I expect to finalize everything and have it available the week of the 21st. In the mean time, check out the CreateSpace.com product page, where purchases yield me a higher royalty than anywhere else.
