

Please Wake The Fuck Up

If you're sickened and outraged by the heinously evil crap that a lot of people in power have done, especially to children, GOOD! You should be. There are some evil shits who need to stop existing.

HOWEVER...

If you are "trusting the plan" about a bunch of (mythical) "white knights" inside the government, with the Orange Fuhrer leading the charge, who are just about to bring all those sick, evil people to justice...

...PLEASE WAKE THE FUCK UP!

That is 100% a distraction and a misdirect. The entire "Q anon" scam is a psy-op, designed to exploit your righteous anger, and turn it into support for political parasites like Trump, and support for more authoritarian powers.

The system, and those at the top of it, are profoundly evil. If you think the system is going to take ITSELF down, and you're content to sit around waiting for that to happen, you've been had.
