

Save Us from the Voters

Nobody asked but ...

Even worse than the if-you-don't-vote crowd are the it's-your-duty bunch. And then you have the voting-should-be-compulsory mavens (and what a fine premise for the land of the free [irony alert]!) Acknowledging that any state or local vote is irrelevant to countrywide representation, here is what you get:

- 1 vote every 4 years for POTUS,
- 1 vote every 2 years for HOROTUS, and
- 2 votes every 6 years for SOTUS.

That's it! As POTUS may say, "that's a bad deal for us." People say that voters are ignorant. The above calculus confirms that, but what kind of education would fix this stupidity?
