

Spaghetti Code

Nobody asked but ...

Spaghetti Code is a computer programming term referring to poor design. In most instances, the making of law resembles a pot of spaghetti on a full boil.

POTUS is created by the Constitution to administer the laws of the land. The Constitution is the supreme law of the land. The First Amendment is the foremost law of the land.

Q.: Is POTUS specifically violating the Oath of Office when he uses the Color of Office to specifically attack the Media?
