

Spend Their Days in Prison

Everyone who has ever been to school knows that school is prison, but almost nobody says it. It's not polite to say it. We all tiptoe around this truth, that school is prison, because telling the truth makes us all seem so mean. How could all these nice people be sending their children to prison? How could our democratic government make laws requiring children to spend their days in prison? It's unthinkable, and so we try hard to avoid thinking it. Or, if we think it, we at least don't say it.
