

Taxation is...

Taxation is theft.

Taxation is theft.

Taxation is theft.

Taxation is theft!

I remember how I felt the first time I heard it. I was shocked. But then I tried to consider any possible way it might not be true. I never did find any flaws in the reasoning. Taxation IS theft.

It needs to be repeated until it is a cliché. Until it is no longer shocking but is, instead, boring. Until people who hear it roll their eyes, not because it's a crazy notion, but because it's something everyone simply knows already.
