

The Folly of Voting

Guest post by Freedom Press (circa 1904).

I shall not vote in the coming general election. I am fully aware that this will be of little consequence so far as the result of the contest is concerned, and that is one of the reasons for not voting. But I have other reasons, chief among them being that I do not believe in government by the majority, nor the minority either. I do not believe in government at all.
