

Two More Complaints Dismissed – Prosecution Withdraws Complaints

Congrats to Jordan and Dwight for defending themselves against complaints and getting them dismissed. And thanks for providing the documentary proof. While both are without prejudice, success in court is still a success and worth reporting.

The documents from the video are below.

Both filed the motion to dismiss and discovery request I have available. The motion is based on the prosecution's lack of evidence to support their claims of jurisdiction and a valid cause of action.

[embedded content]