

To Walk Around in Public without a Straight Jacket

Trump threatens to cut off all trade with any nation that trades with North Korea. That includes China. Trump is an imbecile. Next thing you know, he'll threaten to nuke the USA to demonstrate his manhood to Kim Jong-un.

Trump should not even be allowed to walk around in public without a straight jacket, much less to wield the powers of the presidency. He's an angry, irrational escapee from the disturbed children's sandbox.
