

Words Poorly Used #92 — Weasel Words

What a rich week! The wordsmiths of Sodom-on-the-Potomac have outdone themselves. 'Potential evidence' and 'strategic patience' debuted just a few days apart, both used in veiled threats of violence. Syria and North Korea were the apples of the warmongers' eyes. Beware of buzzwords.

— Kilgore Forelle